

Declaration of Practices and Procedures

I am pleased that we will be working together and look forward to helping you reach your goals in counseling. This statement is designed to inform you of my background and to insure that you understand our professional relationship. After reading this document, please sign and date the last page. If you would like a copy of these practices and procedures let me know at any time.

1. Counseling Relationship

It is my desire to provide a warm and trusting atmosphere in which you feel free to examine patterns of behavior, thought, and/or mood that are causing you or your child's concern. I am diverse in my counseling approach which means I use a variety of theoretical approaches and strategies in an attempt to meet a client's needs, address specific issues, and promote goal obtainment.

After information gathering, answering any questions you might have and becoming acquainted, therapeutic goals are established through collaboration. I often use between-session assignments which are a vital part of the therapeutic progress. Completion of homework is necessary if you or your child is to benefit the most from the therapeutic process. The ultimate goal of therapy is the successful resolution of the problems that are considered most important.

7. Explanation of the types of services and client population:

I provide individual, family, and couples counseling to persons aged 5 and up. Group counseling is available based on need and interest. Divorce mediation, family mediation, and parent coordination is also available upon request. Presentations are also available upon request at schools, churches, or workplaces.

8. Code of Ethics:

I am required by state law to adhere to the Louisiana Code of Conduct for Louisiana Licensed Clinical Social Workers. Copies of this code are available upon request.

9. Privileged Communication/Confidentiality:

I am required to abide by the professional practice standards and Louisiana law. I do not disclose client confidences and information to any third party without clients written consent or waiver except when mandated or permitted by law. Verbal authorization will not be sufficient except in emergency situations. State law mandates that I report to the appropriate authorities suspected cases of child abuse/neglect, elder abuse/neglect, or disabled abuse/neglect and instances of danger to self or others when reasonably necessary to protect the client or other parties from a clear and imminent threat of serious physical harm. Certain types of litigation may lead to the court-ordered release of information without your consent.

When working with couples, families, or groups I cannot disclose any information outside of the treatment context without a written authorization from all individuals competent to sign such authorization. When working with a family or couple, information shared by individuals in sessions, when other family members are not present, must be held in confidence (except for the mandated exceptions already noted) unless all individuals involved sign written waivers at the outset of therapy. Clients may refuse to sign such a waiver but should be advised that maintaining confidentiality for individual sessions during couple or family therapy could impede or even prevent a positive outcome to therapy.

10. Potential Counseling Risks:

Please be aware that counseling poses potential risks. In the course of working together additional issues may surface, may become more acute, or may affect your relationships in ways you had not fully anticipated. If this occurs, please feel free to share any new concerns with me.

11. Emergency Situations:

During business hours please call my office at (225) 387-2287 to speak with me. If I am inaccessible, for whatever reason or it is after hours call the Baton Rouge Crisis Intervention Center at (225) 924-3900 or 911, or if warranted, proceed to your nearest emergency room.

12. Client Responsibilities:

It is suggested that the client have a complete physical examination if he/she has not had one within the past year. Also, the client agrees to list on the intake form any medication he/she is taking.
